Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 777 by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 49-3-317, is amended by adding the following as a new subsection:

(1) If an LEA's BEP calculation for the 2021-2022 school year, inclusive of the state and local portions, generates a lower BEP calculation than was calculated for the 2020-2021 school year, then the LEA's BEP calculation for the 2021-2022 school year, inclusive of the state and local portions, must be equal to the LEA's BEP calculation for the 2020-2021 school year. The department shall compare an LEA's BEP calculation for the 2021-2022 school year with the LEA's BEP calculation for the 2020-2021 school year for purposes of this subdivision (e)(1) prior to any adjustments to the instructional salaries and wages and instructional benefits categories of the BEP in each respective year.

(2) The BEP calculation used in subdivision (e)(1) must only be used to determine an LEA's BEP funding for the 2021-2022 school year, and shall not be used in determining future BEP calculations.

(3) Subdivision (e)(1) only applies to LEAs in full compliance with state school attendance and truancy intervention laws as provided in chapter 6, part 30 of this title, and the state board of education's continuous learning plan rules, which require LEAs to track student attendance daily when students are participating in remote instruction. In tracking daily student attendance and compliance with state school attendance and truancy intervention laws, an LEA shall implement policies and procedures for the LEA to request and receive daily visual, verbal, or written confirmation of student participation in instructional time; determine excused versus unexcused student absences; and implement interventions to address student absences during remote instruction.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 58, Chapter 2, Part 1, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

(a) As used in this section, "executive agency" means any agency, authority, board, commission, department, office, or quasi-governmental entity in the executive branch of state government, or any independent entity of state government that is created by the use of the governor's emergency powers pursuant to this chapter.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of this part, an executive agency must be reviewed by a joint evaluation committee, created pursuant to § 4-29-103, within sixty (60) days of the executive agency's creation for the sole purpose of making a recommendation on whether to continue or discontinue the executive agency and its function. The joint evaluation committee shall make a recommendation on the continuation or discontinuation to the general assembly for further action within five (5) days of the completion of such review.

(c) The joint evaluation committee shall review the executive agency in accordance with subsection (b) to either:

(1) Extend the executive agency and its function for a period to be determined by the general assembly, by legislative enactment; or

(2) Not extend the executive agency and its function and prohibit any further action by the executive agency, by legislative enactment.

(d) All public purchases and contracts for goods and services entered into by an executive agency beginning on July 1, 2021, are subject to the requirements of title 12, chapter 3.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect July 1, 2021, the public welfare requiring it.

House Bill No. 358 -- Taxes, Personal Property - As introduced, authorizes the county trustee to proceed against delinquent taxpayers by retaining an agent to collect delinquent personal property taxes, interest, costs, and attorneys' fees. - Amends TCA Title 67, Chapter 5. by *Marsh, *Lamberth, *Todd. (SB563 by *Bowling, *Walley)

Rep. Marsh moved that House Bill No. 358 be passed on third and final consideration.

Rep. Crawford moved adoption of Local Government Committee Amendment No. 1 as follows:

Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 358 by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2004, is amended by designating the existing language as subsection (a) and adding the following:

(A) The county trustee may proceed against a taxpayer who is delinquent in the payment of tangible personal property taxes by retaining an agent to collect such delinquent tangible personal property taxes, plus interest authorized by law, reasonable costs, and legal fees, provided that the collection activities are in compliance with this subsection (b).

(B) If a collection agent is retained, the county trustee shall utilize the bidding procedures applicable to the county to select and retain the agent and shall notify the county legislative body of such action. The agent's collection fee shall not exceed thirty percent (30%) of tangible personal property taxes due, and the fee must be added to the total amount of delinquent tangible personal property taxes owed, plus interest authorized by law, reasonable costs, and legal fees.

(C) A contract or other arrangement entered into to retain a collection agent under this subsection (b) shall not provide that the compensation paid to the agent is conditioned on increasing tangible personal property tax collections in the county involved. A contract found to contain such language is void and unenforceable.

(D) An agent shall not communicate with the delinquent taxpayer or proceed upon the delinquent taxpayer's property unless authorization to take such action is provided in the contract. The agent shall not institute or undertake a collection or related activity in violation of the Tennessee Collection Service Act, compiled in title 62, chapter 20.

(E) An agent retained pursuant to this subsection (b) must be licensed and in good standing with the Tennessee collection service board.

(F) All foreclosures, seizures, litigation, or other judicial or non-judicial proceedings to enforce a tax lien or any similar rights to collect delinquent tangible personal property taxes, plus interest authorized by law, reasonable costs, and legal fees, must be in the name of the county trustee as the plaintiff or claimant.

(G) An agent who also performs audit procedures shall not be retained to collect delinquent tangible personal property taxes under this section.

(2) This subsection (b) is repealed on July 1, 2024.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.

On motion, Local Government Committee Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Rep. Hazlewood moved adoption of Finance, Ways, and Means Committee Amendment No. 1, as House Amendment No. 2, as follows:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 37, Chapter 5, Part 2, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

37-5-214.

(a) As used in this section:

(1) "Seclusion" means the involuntary segregation of a child from the rest of the resident population regardless of the reason for the segregation, including confinement to a locked unit or ward where other children may be seen or heard but are separated from the child, but does not include:

(A) The segregation of a child for the purpose of managing biological contagion consistent with the centers for disease control and prevention guidelines;

(B) Voluntary time-out involving the voluntary separation of an individual child from others, and where the child is allowed to end the separation at will; or

(C) Temporarily securing children in their rooms during regularly scheduled times, such as periods set aside for sleep or regularly scheduled down time, that are universally applicable to the entire population or within the child's assigned living area; and

(2) "Temporary" means for no more than two (2) hours.

(b) This section applies to juvenile detention facilities approved, certified, or licensed by the department of children's services, including youth development centers.

(c) Seclusion shall not be used for discipline, punishment, administrative convenience, retaliation, staffing shortages, or any reason other than a temporary response to behavior that threatens immediate harm to a youth or others. Following a period of seclusion, the facility administrator may review the seclusion and authorize an additional two-hour period of seclusion if appropriate. The facility administrator shall not authorize more than two (2) subsequent, consecutive periods of seclusion or more than six (6) total hours of seclusion within a twenty-four-hour period. The department may, by rule or policy, provide alternative options for a child who cannot safely rejoin the rest of the resident population following the maximum period of seclusion authorized by this subsection (c).

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 37-1-102, is amended by deleting subdivision (b)(26) and substituting instead the following:

(26) "Seclusion" means the involuntary segregation of a child from the rest of the resident population regardless of the reason for the segregation, including confinement to a locked unit or ward where other children may be seen or heard but are separated from the child, but does not include:

(1) The segregation of a child for the purpose of managing biological contagion consistent with the centers for disease control and prevention guidelines;

(2) Voluntary time-out involving the voluntary separation of an individual child from others, and where the child is allowed to end the separation at will; or

(3) Temporarily securing children in their rooms during regularly scheduled times, such as periods set aside for sleep or regularly scheduled down time, that are universally applicable to the entire population or within the child's assigned living area;

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 37-1-116(l), is amended by deleting the subsection and substituting instead the following:

(l) Seclusion must not be used for discipline, punishment, administrative convenience, retaliation, staffing shortages, or any reason other than a temporary response to behavior that threatens immediate harm to a youth or others. This subsection (l) applies to any child detained in any facility pursuant to § 37-1-114, either pre-adjudication or post-adjudication. Following a period of seclusion, the facility administrator may review the seclusion and authorize an additional two-hour period of seclusion if appropriate. The facility administrator shall not authorize more than two (2) subsequent, consecutive periods of seclusion or more than six (6) total hours of seclusion within a twenty-four-hour period. The department may, by rule or policy, provide alternative options for a child who cannot safely rejoin the rest of the resident population following the maximum period of seclusion authorized by this subsection (l).
